worried about repeated occurrences. And if youre charging, when does it become a business? Cheltenham Mercantile License requires you to post the license in a conspicuous location. I think one advantage of that is it allows residences to know who to contact. Plus the township is informed beforehand.
Maybe preventing this problem from the beginning? Who knows... I guess Im trying to find answers to the question, what really can be done to protect residents (and of course businesses, since to lower taxes the Township may want to bring in businesses). It maybe in the OPs mind, hey I cant really do anything ... just noise, and maybe parking. But, I do think business are required to notify the Township of parking needs, or provide for them.
Karina Sellhorn Is that true? There are fundraisers all the time that provide alcohol for free. One last night with our state rep. If its illegal, that requirement doesnt seem to have any teeth -- agreed however, noise is a problem.
